CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20505

12 JUL 1982

Mr. Robert DeProspero
Special Agent in Charge
Presidential Protective Division
United States Secret Service
1800 G Street, N.W.
Room 941
Washington, D.C. 20223

Dear Mr. DeProspero:

On 23 June 1982 the President visited the Headquarters of this Agency on the occasion of the signing of the Intelligence Identities Protection Act. The visit required extensive coordination with personnel of the United States Secret Service. Agent Dennis Chomicki was in charge of the advance team for the United States Secret Service and served as the focal point in the planning and execution of the protective measures surrounding the Presidential visit.

Because there was less than 24 hours' notice for the visit, an unusual amount of effort was pursued by both United States Secret Service personnel and members of my staff to insure the implementation of effective security measures. From my own personal participation, and from subsequent comments I received from other senior Agency officials, the visit and its surrounding protective aspects were carried out successfully.

I am writing to you to express my appreciation for the efforts of United States Secret Service personnel involved in the visit, but especially to cite Agent Chomicki for the professionalism and cooperation which I feel facilitated the cooperation of both of our staffs throughout the planning and execution stages of the affair. Agent Chomicki was sensitive to our special security requirements and the unique nature of our Headquarters operation. He demonstrated understanding, flexibility, and efficiency in the mutual task that faced us. His dedication to duty and professionalism were clearly demonstrated.

On behalf of the Agency, may I extend our commendation to Agent Chomicki for a job well done.

Sincerely,
